We've been welcomed into partners homes

Numerous partners say 'hi/hello partners'

Seen their work from home set-up

Duncan: My working from home set up is a desk in my bedroom.

Jonny: We have a rota system in our household, and today I'm perched by our dining table.

Tamlyn: My work from home space is a dedicated area in our room.

How they have their coffee

Ruben: When at work I enjoy a Doppio Espresso

Molly: So every morning I use my trusty Nespresso

Sophie: I'm having some rooibos caramel tea

Ways to keep physically and mentally fit

Emilie: To keep fit during lockdown I've been going out with my brother, he's been running, whilst I've been cycling as I can't quite keep up with his running. Here he comes now.

Reuben: I've also discovered yoga which I think is fantastic for stretching after a really long day sitting in front of the screen.

Lisa: I've been doing about 5km a day, here's a picture of my husband and me and my daughter at the end of a run.

Romy: I either go for a run or hula hoop.

Along with some top viewing recommendations

Claire: Really enjoying the Last Dance at the moment and I have enjoyed Good Girls and You previously.

Gagan: Big Band Theory, Money Heist, and Breaking Bad.

Jenny: At the moment I'm re-watching my favourite TV show of all time The Thick of It, it's on Netflix at the moment. And, rather embarrassingly, I've been watching Selling Sunset.

Tim: I would recommend the last dance which is following the last season of the Chicago Bulls during 1997-1998.

Vanessa: The Crown, absolutely must watch.

Lorna: Chefs Table, Marco Polo, Derry Girls if you want a good laugh.

Suminda: I think Silence of the Lamb, best film ever, and Netflix recommendations I would go with Snowpiercer, Homeland and the Good Witch, depending what mood I'm in.

Enjoy the Holiday season and we'll see you in 2021
